PROVIDENCA

ABOUT

Providenca, or providence, is the name of this divine vessel that puts the faith in its sails and hull to carry it across the vast Adriatic to make comfort and joy to the passengers. A beautiful combination of green and wood on the deck creates an explosion of light when the sun shines on the sleek hull and sails catch up the wind bursting with power. All along, you enjoy on the deck lying on the sunbeds or sitting as the breeze cools you down in the hot summer day. Some water sports equipment can help out as well or, even better, a jump to the crystal blue sea elating all your body cells.

In the evening, nothing better than to sit on the stern and enjoy your meal in the romantic atmosphere under the soft light and cricket choir on the nearby trees. Getting inside, 1975 sucks you in with the interior and the modern amenities set up in 2018 that bring you back to the small but cozy saloon in which you can spend some time trying to hide from the sun a bit. The three cabins, two twin-bedded and one bunk bed cabin give you more insight into the original design and a feeling of peace of the old times. In one thing you can be sure in this world, Providenca and its crew will timely prepare your crew of six for a hedonistic week on the Adriatic.
