ABOUT

Gardelin (Eng. goldfinch) is one of the favorite birds to Dalmatian people, valued mostly for pleasant silvery twittering, as well as it's beautiful feathers. For a long time, it was regularly kept inside the cage in lots of homes, but nowadays not so much. Nevertheless, gulet Gardelin is not to be kept in any cage but is to be free on the sea, sailing into the sunset with you and your family on it. You can choose to sit alongside two big tables on the back deck and fill your bellies with tasty Dalmatian delicacies, or just throw yourselves on the mattresses and sofa on the front deck, enjoying the sun and doing backflips off of the bowsprit. Inside, you can enjoy in a cozy salon or just head for a nap in 5 double and 2 triple cabins, all en-suite and air-conditioned, perfect for 16 of you. That, and the fact that it has vast array of adrenalin equipment perfect for water sports such as banana-boat skiing, surfing, and canoeing, makes Gardelin the best bird, I mean boat, for you.
