ALTAIR

ABOUT

*"Three of them walk together-
She is the fairest of three;
And sweet as the heavenly weather
She maketh the heart of me!"*

Karle Wilson Baker wrote these lines in her poem "Altair", depicting the brightest star in a well-known line of stars called Aquilae. Righteous name indeed, as Altair is a star among the gulets in Croatia. Hull's dark color gives it a luxurious and glamorous look contrasted with the white sails, as a star in Space.

The covered aft deck has a large table suitable for twelve people yearning for Dalmatian specialties. White mattresses and wide sofa on the front deck perfectly fit your summer goal of doing nothing. A good book and a company are all you need, if not swimming, of course.

The interior of Altair is always illuminated by sunlight coming through the large windows, except during the night, naturally. During the night, the salon with a large table transforms into a room for elegant dinner parties. Six cabins, four of them with a double bed and two with twin beds, are all en-suite and air-conditioned. The professional crew will assist you with everything you need, making sure your stay on Altair meets its reputation. You are just to come and enjoy.
